

They are always trying out new hobbies with their kids.

They're always on the move.

How to Spot a Home Educator

They likely have a bag like Mary Poppins—it contains EVERYTHING.

They hibernate during the school holidays.

They help discover answers to all the “why?” questions with their kids.

They get just as excited as their kids about learning something new.

